IDENTIFICATION OF A BOARD MEMBER

A Board of Director is issued a name badge and must wear it while performing association business. No other person or person(s) can claim to bear the title of Director or conduct Greentree Village Community Association business without proper identification. If you are volunteering on behalf of the Board of Directors and the Greentree Village Community Association, written approval (Letter of Permission) will be endorsed by a Board of Director stating you are conducting such business for the Association on a volunteer basis and within a specified timeframe.

If a person represents himself/herself as a Director or a Volunteer and is conducting association business, please ask to see their badge or accompanying Letter of Permission pertaining thereto. If you are still uncertain, please contact a member of the Board of Directors for clarification at 703.650.9500. Any person conducting association business without the proper identification is subject to fraud and will be prosecuted.

Thank you,

Nonie Stager

President
Greentree Village Community Association
